Twelfth Annual Charity Ball Success From Social and Financial Standpoint

JUST at the time of the year when the snow and cold necessitates help for the less fortunate of the city's population, gold flowed in a steady stream into the coffers of the Catholic Women's Benevolent society on Friday evening when the twelfth annual charity ball was given by the Catholic women of the city. Outside the snow lay on the ground and the wind blew in cold gusts; in Liberty hall hundreds of El Pasoans danced for sweet charity and as a result of the dance hundreds of dollars will be distributed among those who need it.

Eighty-eight aristocratic assemblies and the best of the city's social and financial standpoint.

An interesting dance scheduled for the twelfth annual charity ball was given at the Liberty hall Tuesday evening. The Twelfth annual charity ball was given by the Catholic women of the city. Outside the snow lay on the ground and the wind blew in cold gusts; in Liberty hall hundreds of El Pasoans danced for sweet charity and as a result of the dance hundreds of dollars will be distributed among those who need it.
